

SEE SIANG WONG BIOGRAPHY (SHORT)

The Swiss newspaper Neue Zürcher Zeitung described the Dutch-born pianist See Siang Wong as a "subtle painter of sound", who has made a name for himself with his musical interpretations. He made his debut at the young age of 12 with the Dutch Radio Orchestra. He has since performed at numerous renowned venues in over 30 countries throughout Europe, Asia, the Americas, the Middle East, and Australia.

Among the highlights of his artistic career has been collaborations with renowned conductors, such as Pierre Boulez, Sir Roger Norrington, Ralf Weikert, Howard Griffiths, Leo Hussain, Philipp von Steinaecker with orchestras, such as the London Philharmonic, Radio Symphony Orchestra Vienna, the Zurich Chamber Orchestra, Southwest German Philharmonic Orchestra, the Basel Chamber Orchestra, the Zurich Chamber Orchestra and the Musikkollegium Winterthur.

His extensive discography, for major labels like Sony Classical, RCA Red Seal, Deutsche Harmonia Mundi, Decca, Novalis, received high accolade and were awarded by music critics and includes among others piano works and concertos by the Bach Sons, Beethoven, Chopin, Debussy, Haydn, Messiaen, Mozart, Schubert, and Schumann.

Swiss Radio honored several of his recordings with the "Classical Highlight" Award. In 2012 he was the winner of the prestigious "Golden Label Award" of the Belgian music critics. He initiated the project "Swiss Piano", which promotes the creation of new piano compositions; many famous Swiss contemporary composers have already contributed to this continuing project, which currently consists of 30 new piano pieces.

See Siang Wong has taught at the Zurich University of the Arts since 2002. He studied with Marjès Benoist in the Netherlands as well with Homero Francesch and Bruno Canino in Switzerland. See Siang Wong is among the exclusive circle of Steinway & Sons Artists and is currently living in Switzerland.
